*"I spoke with a social worker today.
If you keep playing '70s music, they're going to put me in a foster home."*

Quote #1

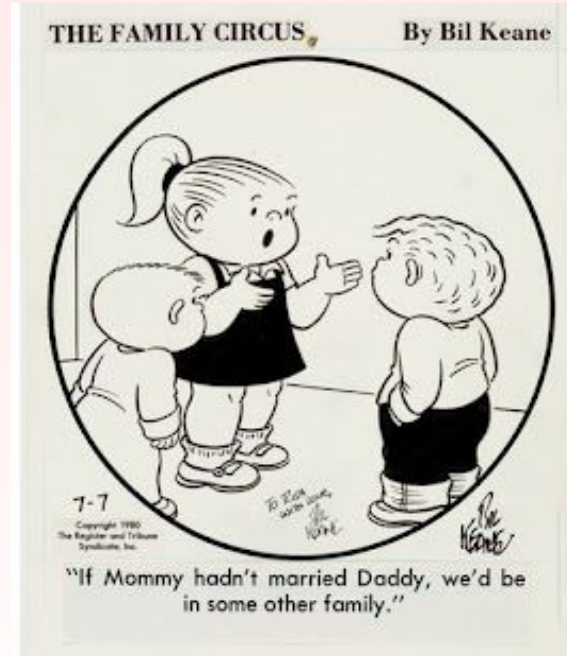

01

I think it's pretty funny because it's kind of a satire but funny. Usually children don't understand things and try to deal with it in their own way. Sometimes they even lash out because they are frustrated or don't know how to deal with their feelings.

Quote #2

It's that innocence of children, they don't think they would not exist but that they would be in a different family. It just goes to show that children don't see things the same way we do.

Quote #3

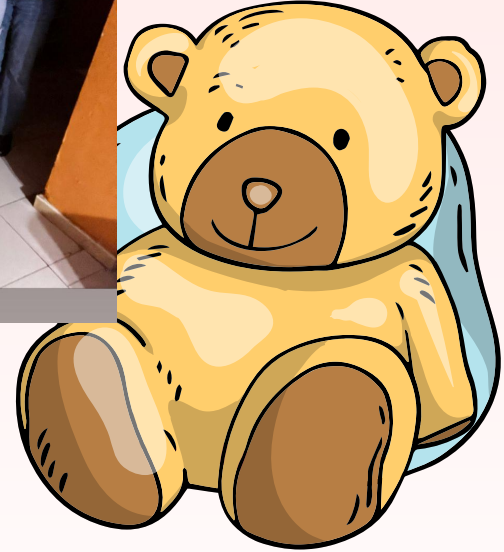

I think it's funny because I know that I have at least said a semi bad word at times and I thought I would get grounded but I didn't, it just got a little scolded. But it reminds me of when I was small and words that aren't really considered bad words would get my parents mad. But never really in a bad way.

04

Family is blood but it's also love.

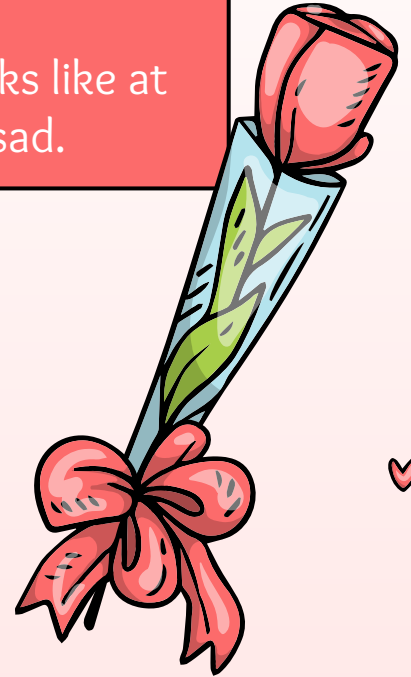

It's very true just because we are family doesn't mean we love each other.

05

Love is sweet but sometimes the most bitter feeling.

Love is not always what it looks like at first and something's it ends sad.

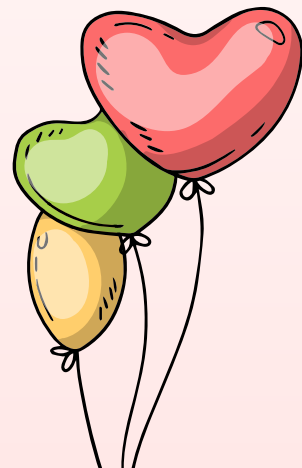

06

“If sleeping was option for a job, I would never go broke”.

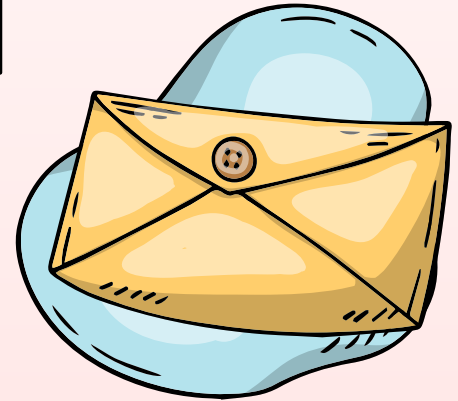

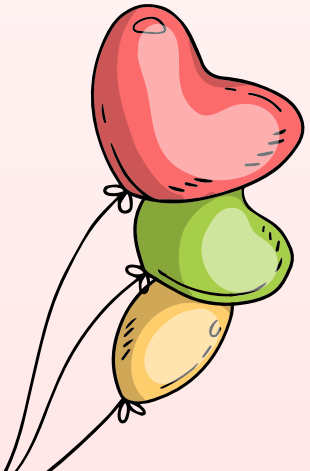

I think this is so true, sleeping is where I find rest, and if it was a job I would be the best employ.

07

“Friendship is vital, for life is very difficult on your own”.

I treasure the friendships I have because they are super important to me.

08

“Love is like an onion, full of layers and can make us cry”.

Love whether its from a person or friends if not treated properly can cause us lots of sadness.

Conclusion

I liked the quotes I found them funny and some very truthful.
